GENERAL GUIDELINES FOR PAPER PREPARATION

THE DEADLINE FOR RECEIPT OF CAMERA-READY PAPERS IS
JANUARY 8, 2006
Papers received after this date will not be accepted for review.

PAPER PREPARATION

In order for your paper to receive a full review the following information MUST be included in your submission to the wesite:
- Title of paper
- Name, complete mailing address, telephone number, fax number and e-mail address of first author
- Names, affiliations, city, state, country of additional authors
- Person to whom correspondence should be sent, if other than the first author
- Symposium submitting to: Symposium on VLSI Technology or Symposium on VLSI Circuits
- Camera-ready paper

1. Your complete paper must occupy no more than two pages including illustrations.

2. `Best Student Paper Award`
   The selection will based upon the quality of the written paper and the presentation. The student that receives the Best Student Paper Award will receive a monetary award and a certificate, which will be presented at the opening session of the 2007 Symposium. The Symposium will cover the travel expense and registration fee for the award recipient to attend the 2007 Symposium. The student must be the leading author and presenter of the paper, and must indicate in the submission cover letter that this is a student paper in order to be considered for this award.

Submitted papers, which exceed this length, will not be accepted for review. Each page can contain about 700 words and two illustrations (assuming each illustration is two-column format). A page could contain as many as six illustrations if they are sized accordingly.
When preparing the final pages, please follow carefully the instructions in the attached Author's Guide. To ensure adequate reproduction, a high contrast black type/white background original is required. Please be sure that all illustrations are of the highest quality. Line drawings should be computer generated.

3. 75 Word Abstract
The abstract is a brief synopsis of your paper. It will be used by the Symposium Technical Committee in press releases and pre-Symposium publicity. The abstract should be entered on the submission website.

4. Copyright Transfer Form
This can be downloaded from the website and mailed to your respective secretariat (see below).

The above must be submitted by January 8, 2006. PAPERS RECEIVED AFTER THAT DATE WILL NOT BE ACCEPTED FOR REVIEW.
