All authors

, as well as the 75 word abstract, are hereby transferred to the Japan Society of Applied Physics, effective if and when the article is accepted for publication in the Technical Digest of the 2007 Symposium on VLSI Circuits.

However, the authors reserve the following rights:

1. Retain all proprietary rights other than copyright, such as patent rights.
2. Reuse all or portions of the above paper in other works.
3. Reproduce, or have reproduced, the above paper for the author's personal use or for company use, provided that the copies are not offered for sale.

To be signed by at least one of the authors (who agrees to inform the others, if any) or, in the case of a "work made for hire," by the employer.

PART B

U.S. Government Employee Certification

Authors who are U.S. Government employees are not required to sign Part A of the JSAP Copyright Form, but any co-authors outside U.S. Government are required to sign Part A. Authors whose work was performed under a U.S. Government contract or grant, but who are not government employees, are required to sign Part A of this form. Signing Part B will certify that ALL authors of the above work are employees of the U.S. Government and performed this work as part of their official duties and that the work is therefore not subject to JSAP copyright protection.

Authorized Signature Title

Name of Government Organization Date

PART C

Crown Copyright

Authors who are employees of the British Government (or a British Commonwealth Government) and whose works are subject to Crown Copyright may sign Part C. JSAP recognizes and will honor Crown Copyright as it does U.S. Copyright. It is understood that, in asserting Crown Copyright, JSAP in no way diminishes its rights as publisher. Signing Part C will certify that ALL authors of the above work are subject to Crown Copyright. (Appropriate documentation and instructions regarding working of Crown Copyright notice may be attached.)
